German Language Course Information for MME Students

Congratulations on your admission to one of RWTH Aachen University's English-taught Master's degree programs!

Students enrolled in one of the following Master's degree programs need to prove A1.1 German language knowledge as part of in their respective curriculum:

- M.Sc. Management and Engineering in Computer Aided Mechanical Engineering (MME-CAME)
- M.Sc. Management and Engineering in Structural Engineering and Risk Management of Industrial Facilities (MME-CONSTRUCT)
- M.Sc. Management and Engineering in Production Systems (MME-PS)
- M.Sc. Management and Engineering in Water (MME-Water)

MME students independently select an A1.1 German language course from the semester course offerings by the Language Center (Sprachenzentrum) at RWTH Aachen University. You can take the A1.1 German language course either in your first semester starting in October (Winter Semester) or in the second semester starting in April (Summer Semester). You thus have the freedom to opt for an A1.1 time slot that best suits your individual study schedule and semester workload.

Please note that it is your responsibility to actively register for your German language course during the Language Center's registration period prior to the semester of attendance!

All information on the registration process and the important semester deadlines can be found here.

Course Fees

Students enrolled in the Master's degree programs mentioned above, do not have to pay a course fee for the A1.1 German language course as it is part of your curriculum.

Exemption

The MME students mentioned above are eligible for an exemption from the A1.1 course if they can show proof of equivalent German knowledge with a Goethe or TELC A1 Certificate or higher. You need to present this certificate to the Language Center's Service-Point, where the certificate will be approved and the result forwarded to the Registrar's Office. Please note that no certificates can be approved in September or October. MME students may come to the Service-Point from November for approval of their certificate.
